

Sample Packing List

"There's no such thing as bad weather in Southeast Alaska—only bad gear!"

~ Our Crew

DRESSING IN LAYERS IS KEY TO COMFORT!

- ➔ The average summer temperatures are normally in the mid 60s, though they have been known to reach as high as the 80s and dip as low as the mid 40s.
- ➔ It's always casual on board; so functional, layered clothing is recommended!
- ➔ Always be prepared for rainfall during activities!
- ➔ The following are a few suggestions for what to pack! Feel free to contact the Reservations Office for explanations or more details: hello@theboatcompany.org

WE RECOMMEND PACKING:

- ☐ Casual long pants like jeans, khakis, sweat pants
- ☐ Long & short sleeved shirts, turtlenecks for layering
- ☐ Hooded sweatshirt or sweater or fleece jacket (for layering)
- ☐ Lightweight waterproof rain jacket & pants
- ☐ Outdoor jacket and/or vest (it gets cold up near the glacier)
- ☐ Long thermal underwear
- ☐ Soft-soled shoes (to wear onboard)
- ☐ Rubber boots – knee-high (view our Rubber Boot Guide)
- ☐ Hiking shoes
- ☐ Extra socks
- ☐ Wool or other knit cap & gloves (waterproof gloves for fishing)
- ☐ Sunglasses (polarized are best)
- ☐ Personal toiletries
- ☐ Medicines (refrigeration available)

We'll provide soap, shampoo, conditioner & hairdryers! Laundry service is not available onboard – but there is a drying locker aboard to dry your wet clothes!

OPTIONAL:

- ☐ Swim shorts or bathing suit (yes, some brave folks actually do go swimming!)
- ☐ Camera, lenses, extra batteries, cables, and charger
- ☐ Small daypack or fanny pack (good for carrying excess layers on hikes)
- ☐ Portable binoculars (we provide large binoculars in each stateroom)
- ☐ Waterproof bug repellent if you have a preferred brand (we have a variety of repellants onboard!)
- ☐ Collapsible walking stick (if you would like to use one on uneven terrain)

*For fly fishing, you'll want to bring your own gear including rod, reel and waders! We'll have flies that are local to the area.

See the suggested gear for fly fishers for more detailed recommendations.*