CANCELLATION POLICY

The Boat Company is a non-profit educational organization incorporated in the State of Alaska. Unlike cruise ship operations carrying hundreds or even thousands of passengers, if you reserve with us and then later find you must cancel, it will significantly impact our ability to cover expenses. Due to our need for a strict cancellation policy, we strongly recommend that you purchase travel insurance.

- Free cancellation is available for all trips within 24 hours of booking.
- Deposits are non-refundable after 24 hours; any payments made prior to the 180-day period will be returned 100% minus the deposit.
- Cancellation between 90 and 180 days prior to departure: 1) Receive either a credit for the amount paid, less a 25% administrative fee, to be applied toward a future trip OR 2) receive a charitable contribution letter for the amount paid less any deposits and/or fees.
- Cancellation within 90 days of departure: All deposits and payments are non-refundable. Guests will receive a charitable contribution letter for the amount paid, less any deposits and/or fees.
- Cancellation after the cruise has started or early disembarkation: No refunds, credits, or compensation will be provided.

We appreciate your understanding of our cancellation policy, and we strongly recommend purchasing travel insurance to protect against unforeseen changes. Travel insurance can be purchased through our affiliate at Squaremouth www.squaremouth.com/23597. Travel Guard, Allianz or Insure My Trip are other options.
Cancellation requests must be submitted by telephone or in writing to The Boat Company. To cancel or modify your reservation, please contact our team as soon as possible.
